ATHLETICS

Our college friendships soon must sever,
And fade as does the dying day,
Our closest bonds must all be broken,
As through this world we wend our way.
But yet—whatever be life's fortunes,
Though friendships fail and friends be few,
We'll love thee still, our Alma Mater,
Our dear old W. and L. U.

Clayton Epes Williams

D e d i c a t i o n

In every university there are professors who will be remembered long after the knowledge which they have imparted becomes merely a link in the long chain of life education. CLAYTON EPES WILLIAMS, to whom we dedicate this yearbook, realizes this ideal. In his many years of outstanding service to Washington and Lee, Dean Williams has earned both the respect and admiration of his students and colleagues as an educator, an administrator, and an individual.

His tireless efforts and unceasing guidance have been responsible for a new phase in the history of our Law School. Since becoming Dean in 1944, he has brought about vast improvements in the curriculum, the facilities, and in the quality of teaching. The fine showing of Washington and Lee's moot court teams, which during the past few years have consistently ranked very high nationally; the completion last year of the Davis Law Dormitory, which has long been one of his coveted goals; and the introduction of the John Randolph Tucker Lectures, which have attracted to our campus some of the nation's foremost judges, attorneys, and educators, are but a few of the manifold achievements exemplary of the career of this Bradford Professor of Law.

The retirement this year of DR. CLAYTON EPES WILLIAMS as head of the Law School marks the end of a forty year association with Washington and Lee University. Thus, it is only fitting that we proudly dedicate to the senior member of the Faculty—educator, leader, counselor, and friend—this 1960 CALYX.

The Deans' Welcome: Dean Frank J. Gilliam, Dean Leon F. Sensabaugh, and Dr. Fred Cole.

To the Class of 1960:

I am privileged for the first time to join the faculty of this distinguished University of wonderful traditions in wishing for you success and happiness in the future. You have been afforded a unique opportunity to learn in your years here, and your record indicates that you have taken good advantage of this opportunity.

The spirit and the methods of the liberal arts have been the basis of your college experience. One of your greatest rewards, I believe, has been the achievement of a sense of humility about what you now know and an awareness of what remains to be learned. We hope that you have been taught to ask the proper questions, to weigh all possible answers, to distinguish not only between the true and the false but between the true and the merely valid.

You will remember that the goal you have been seeking, a degree from Washington and Lee, will be a mark of distinction for all your life. I am confident that the Class of 1960 will bring further honor to their Alma Mater.

Dear Edward Ladd:

Choosing a beauty from so many pretty girls is always a difficult task, but nevertheless a pleasant one.

Out of all your pretty gals, I have chosen:

Queen	-	SUZANNE DUCKETT
Maid	-	CAROL WOODWARD
Maid	-	DIANE MCKAY
Maid	-	SALLY HOLCOMBE
Maid	-	JULIANA WOLF

My heartiest congratulations to all the pretty ladies and my best wishes to all the students at Washington & Lee.

Good luck and success with your 1960 CALYX.

Sincerely,

JP:mp

Since its founding in 1856, Alpha Rho chapter of Beta Theta Pi has continued to fill its role as one of the most active fraternities on the Washington and Lee campus. The spirit of its past record has been carried over into this present year when Beta's diversity made it an important part of almost all campus activities.

One indication of this was the election of Beta Frank Surface to the highest student office in the school, that of President of the Student Body. In addition to this highest office, Sandy Larson and Pearce Hardwick were elected to class offices in the senior and sophomore classes, respectively. Sandy Larson, a Dean's List student, was also tapped for membership in Omicron Delta Kappa leadership fraternity.

Betas also were well represented in other campus organizations. Junior Ed Ladd was chosen editor-in-chief of the CALYX, and Charles Baucum was sports editor. Sandy Larson served the International Relations Club as president during this past year. Roy Flannagan wrote for The Ring-nun Phi. Pearce Hardwick and Leyburn Mosby also were on the staff of the CALYX. In addition, Bob Spratt was a dormitory counselor.

Betas were also active in varsity athletics as seen by the fact that three Betas were chosen captains of their respective teams. Co-captain Jack Groner sparked the football team to its best season in years. Other Betas on the varsity scene were fullback Grantham Couch and linemen Gordon Rountree and Tom Goodwin. Frank Surface was co-captain of the basketball squad, while Ollie Cook led the golf team. Pearce Hardwick also was a member of the basketball team, and Grantham Couch was a member of the 1959 Virginia golf championship team. Maury Purnell and Jim Parker were on the swimming team, and John Edmunds was a member of the varsity wrestling squad. Hilly Thompson, John Dinkel, and Hunter Tracht were on the lacrosse team, which joined with the University of Virginia lacrosse team on a tour through Australia last summer. Also, Roy Flannagan was a member of the soccer team.

Mrs. Frances D. Martin served the Beta house as its house mother for her thirteenth year. Her experience has been of much value in reminding the Betas of their need to live up to the past record of Beta Theta Pi of Washington and Lee.

Delta Tau Delta was founded at Bethany College, West Virginia, in 1859. From this beginning, Delta Tau Delta, in a century, has grown into one of the ten largest fraternities in the nation. The Phi Chapter was founded at W&L in 1896. The Deltas were the first to have a house on campus; it was the building now known as Preston House.

Since 1896, the Deltas have had many fine years at W&L, and 1959-1960 has been one of them. The Deltas are to be found in practically every activity and organization on campus, with Bill Young setting the pace for them. Bill was co-captain of the football team, a member of Scabbard and Blade, a dormitory counselor, chairman of the Independent Party, and chosen to Who's Who and ODK. Walt Cremin was secretary of the Assimilation Committee; Dave Cook also served on this committee and was Freshman Camp counselor. John Towler was member of the Student Library Committee, and with Ken Beall, he was active in the Troubadour Theater, serving as its publicity manager. Towler appeared in a leading role in Rashomon.

In publications, Ned Ames held numerous positions including executive editor of The Ring-tum Phi, managing editor of the CALYX, and co-editor of the W&L Handbook. George Honts was class editor of the CALYX and copy editor of The Ring-tum Phi. Tom Luthy was co-editor of the organization section of the CALYX, and Ken Beall was associate editor of the Southern Collegian.

In sports, the Deltas also had an important place. The house won the over-all Intramural and Intercollegiate Trophy for last year. Besides Bill Young, 11 other Deltas played varsity football, thus composing nearly one-third of the varsity squad. Bob Lathrop captained the soccer team, on which three other Deltas saw much action. Mike Monier landed a starring berth on the varsity basketball team; Les Peard was among the lacrosse players who toured Australia last summer; Whiz Wheeler was over-all athletic manager for W&L for 1959-1960; Leigh Allen was head cheerleader; Danny Dyer completed his second successful season as varsity wrestler; and the Deltas were to be found in practically every other sport. At least 21 Deltas lettered in the past year.

Under the guidance of brother Don Thalacker, the Deltas won the Best Decorations Award for Homecoming displays for the third consecutive year.

Dean James Farrar serves the local Phi Chapter as faculty advisor, while Mrs. Maxwell Smith is House Mother.

The W&L chapter of Delta Upsilon was established in 1930 and through a spirit of brotherhood and endeavor has maintained a prominent position on this campus.

Several DU's again this year were on the Southern Collegian staff. Jerry Susskind served as editor. Other members of the staff were Hugo Hoogenboom, managing editor; Jim Smith, exchange editor; Dick Ranc, associate editor; Bob Holley, feature editor; and Pete Reynolds, a member of the business staff. Among other campus activities, both Dick Ranc and Tom Alexander belong to "13" Club and Cotillion Club. Dick was also secretary-treasurer of the Cotillion Club and secretary of the IFC. Tom Alexander, president of the house first semester, was vice-president of the senior class. Dave Beale was vice-president of the sophomore class, and George Fralin was president of the Finals Dance Set.

In the field of music, Tom O'Brien sang with the Sazaracs, and Herb Sapp and Frost Jackson were in the Glee Club. Bob Holley wrote for Kaleidoscope, while Jim Stott was an engineer for both Kaleidoscope and Home Edition. In PAN and White Friars, the house was well represented by Pete Conrad, Dave Fraser, Phil Macon, and Dave Beale.

In intercollegiate sports, Joe Hess was on the starting line of the varsity football team. Jim Starkey played right forward on the soccer team. Phil McCaleb and Joe Howson were on the freshman football squad. In winter sports, Dave Beale was on the basketball team, and Scotty Cottrell and Graham Fulton wrestled for the team this year. Pete Conrad ran winter track for the second year, and Lew Noe played freshman basketball. This spring Jerry Gordon again played varsity baseball, and Phil McCaleb ran track.

In intramural sports, DU's tennis team won the league championship. In intramural football, the DU squad was sparked by the leadership of Steve Degenhardt, while John Martin captained the golf team.

Again this year the DU's had many parties throughout the year. The Jivers played for the house during Openings Dance Weekend. The formal Christmas House Party was the outstanding social event of the year. The Gladiolas played for the Champagne Party.

Mrs. Gay Langhorne, as house mother, and Dr. Allen Ragan, as faculty advisor, offered guidance and help to the chapter throughout the year.

The Kappa Alpha Order was founded here at Washington and Lee in 1865. The charter members met in the room of William Walsh, which is now part of Robinson Hall. Since that time, the Kappa Alpha Order had grown and expanded until there are now over 80 active chapters in the United States. Robert E. Lee was an important person in helping with the establishment and spread of Kappa Alpha. It is to him that the local chapter owes much of its idealism and tradition.

Here, at Washington and Lee, the Alpha Chapter of Kappa Alpha is active in all phases of school life. John Bradford, Kent Frazier, and Tom Rains are on the Executive Committee of the Student Body, and both Bradford and Frazier are members of Omicron Delta Kappa. Edward Allen is secretary of the Commerce Fraternity, and Carter Fox is treasurer of the Interfraternity Council. David Keys is historian of Alpha Epsilon Delta, Jay White is president of the White Friars, and Jenks Gibbs is president of the Mongolian Minks.

Academically, KA is represented by Kent Frazier, president of Phi Eta Sigma, of which John Bradford is also a member. John Bradford is also a member of Beta Gamma Sigma.

In athletics, Alpha is represented by Bob Funkhouser, Tiny White, and John White in football. Bob Funkhouser was the second leading scorer in Virginia football, and was elected a co-captain of next year's team.

Socially, the house enjoyed itself as usual, and had many fine parties. Jenny Morton was selected as this year's Rose Queen at the Annual Christmas House Party.

KA's faculty advisor, Dr. E. W. Spenser, and the house mother, Mrs. J. M. Lewis have also added a great deal to its fraternity life.

The Mu Chapter of Kappa Sigma concluded its 86th year on the Washington and Lee campus, with the brothers again assuming outstanding roles of leadership and activity on the campus.

President of the house, Phil Grose, was editor of The Ring-Tum Pbi, associate editor of the Southern Collegian, secretary of the Publications Board, and secretary of Sigma Delta Psi. Serving with Phil on The Ring-Tum Pbi were Wynn Kintz, Al Curran, and Harvey Allen, who was also senior editor of Home Edition. Rardon Bevell, Kirk Henry, and Jim Bailey were also active on Home Edition.

In the Law School, Bill Miller studied in Germany on a Fulbright Scholarship. Ben Meador was president of the senior law class, and Tom Bryant was assistant chairman of the 1960 Mock Convention. Joe Ulrich was on The Law Review.

Other brothers outstanding in campus activities were Al Curran, a sophomore class officer; Rick Breard and Dunlop Ecker, officers of the Glee Club; and Rardon Bevell, battalion commander in ROTC. Members of the Gaines Guard were Bo Mapes, Jim Findley, Bill Sellers, Rick Frisbie, Marshall Timberlake, and Gus Bryan.

In athletics, Dunlop Ecker was on the varsity soccer team, Joe Ulrich played varsity golf, Al Curran and Lou Jones ran cross-country, and Robin Dunlap, Don Belveal, and Bill Candler were swimmers. Luke Kaufmann and Sam Canteay played freshman football. Jim Bailey won the annual freshman turkey trot.

Socially, Kappa Sigma's annual Black and White Ball was the most outstanding of a number of very lively and successful parties. The local chapter also entertained parents and alumni on separate occasions. This year Kappa Sigma's Homecomings display took second prize.

Early in the year, Brothers of the House gave a tea for the faculty members and administration in honor of their new house mother, Mrs. J. Earl Adams. Burford S. Stephenson is Kappa Sigma's faculty advisor.

Lambda Chi Alpha, now one of the nation's largest national fraternities, was founded at Boston University in 1909. The Gamma-Phi Zeta Chapter was started at Washington and Lee 38 years ago, and the present house, which was built in 1935, is the second newest on campus.

The Lambda Chi's won the campus Scholarship Cnp. during the spring semester of last year, the House having maintained an average of 1.731 in the previous term. Helping these academic efforts was Bill Goode, who was initiated into Phi Beta Kappa during his junior year.

In other activities, Lee Braddock participated in quite a few Troubadour productions. Ashby Morton was ROTC regimental operation's officer, while Braddock was executive officer of the Games Guard. Morton also captained the rifle team and was supported by four others LXA's: Jim Austin, Steve Hancock, Bruce Roberson, and Jim McKenna. Among other athletic activities, Rusty McNab was on the swimming and lacrosse teams, Ed Corcoran wrestled and ran track, Frank Evans ran cross-country and track, John Boyle managed cross-country, and Charlie Stow played soccer.

In addition, Ed Webster was managing editor of The Ring-tum Pbi, Ed Schuyler was on the Home Edition staff, and Rob Elder was a WREL announcer. Bob Shepherd captained the debate team. Howe Brown was vice-president of the UCA, and Ed Calhoun was secretary of this organization. Rock Boyle was a lab instructor in geology. Heading two major activities was Pete Merrill, who served as campus intramural manager and president of the Concert Guild. Glee Club stalwarts included Frank Evans, Harry Teter, Mel Marvin, and Jim Weingart. Stan Cook was secretary of the Graham-Lee Society.

The Crescent Queen Ball in the spring climaxed a colorful social season. Also memorable was intramural completion, in which Lambda Chi again made a favorable show.

House mother for the local chapter for the past eight years has been Mrs. Bess Smith. Dr. Charles Turner has served the group as faculty advisor.

Virginia Zeta Chapter of Phi Delta Theta was established at Washington and Lee University in 1887, 39 years after Phi Delta Theta was founded at Oxford, Ohio. The present house was built in 1929 with the assistance of Earl S. Mattingly, secretary of the Board of Trustees and treasurer of the University.

The members of Virginia Zeta have spread themselves throughout all phases of campus life and have proved themselves leaders in athletics, scholastics, and extra-curricular activities. Charles Buffum, who was president of Virginia Zeta in the fall term, was chairman of SWMFC, president of the Commerce Fraternity, and captain of Scabbard and Blade, as well as a member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Bob Feagin was president of the Interfraternity council and a member of the Commerce Fraternity, Sigma, and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Bill McWilliams was president of Spring Dance Set, a member of SWMFC, and a tennis letterman.

In the athletic department, there were many Phi Deltas participating on varsity teams. Bill Offutt, John Lee, and Roy Bowen were on the football team, and Dave Knight on the soccer team. Ed Meyers was outstanding on the swimming team as well as the track team, and was also a member of Sigma Delta Psi. Rocky Gaut played on the basketball team. Dave Calloway, Ed Meyers, and Bill Offutt participated in varsity track. Jay Stull and Harry Alley were on the lacrosse team with Jay Stull as a co-captain. George Chandler and Park Gilmore are on the baseball team. Last year the Phi Deltas won the intercollegiate athletic trophy for the most varsity participation and also won the intramural tennis trophy this year.

Outstanding social events that highlighted the year under the leadership of social chairman Jay Stull, included the fall formal house party, spring Hawaiian party, and the outings to Goshen and Twin Falls.

Virginia Zeta is indebted to its house mother, Mrs. Henry Eichelberger, and its faculty advisor, Dr. Harvey Wheeler, for the aid and assistance which they have given this past year.

Phi Epsilon Pi's Delta Chapter was founded at Washington and Lee in 1920. Since that time, the fraternity has occupied many different houses, with the present one on East Nelson Street being the most recent. This year a parking lot was added to the main physical plant.

Phi Ep has always been active in all phases of fraternity life. It has been the recipient of the Scholarship Cup during many different semesters. This year Phi Ep is proud to have the addition of a new member, Dr. Leland McCloud, who has been the faculty advisor for several years. The fraternity initiated Dr. McCloud as an associate member at its sixth Annual Parent's Weekend Banquet, which took place at the Mayflower Inn.

This year the fraternity had a full social schedule. The House had successful parties at both Openings and Fancy Dress Weekends. During Homecomings Weekend, Phi Ep was privileged to win the third prize in the display contest. Their display featured a choo-choo train.

In athletics, the fraternity also had an outstanding year. Senior Mal Lassman served as a co-captain of the basketball team. At the same time, freshman Howard Blau was a member of the junior varsity team. Alan Corwin, James Applebaum, and Edward Brown were members of the varsity soccer team, and Ralph Elias was the manager of the team. Two other fratres, Barry Bank and Harold Fischel, were members of the varsity rifle team.

Senior Malcolm Lassman received a high honor when he was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Mal has long been a leader on the campus and in the house. His activities included membership on the Cold Check Committee, the University Athletic Committee, and the Inter-Fraternity Council.

Other activities have also kept Phi Ep busy, especially The Southern Collegian, for which Milford Schwartz is the circulation manager, Ralph Elias the office manager, and Stephen Cherney the subscription manager.

Mrs. William C. Flournoy, curator of the Robert E. Lee Chapel Museum, has served faithfully as the Phi Ep house mother for many years.

Phi Gamma Delta was founded over a century ago, in 1848, at Washington and Jefferson College. Since then, the fraternity has expanded, until now it has 86 chapters located at the leading colleges and universities in the United States and Canada and boasts a combined membership of over 60,000. Zeta Deuteron was established at Washington and Lee in 1868, and since then it has continued to advance and strengthen the ideals for which Phi Gamma Delta stands.

In its 92 years at W&L, Zeta Deuteron has maintained a distinguished record of participation in campus activities. This year Will Newton was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Ray Robrecht was the head dormitory counselor, being the third Fiji in succession to have this honor. Ray was aided by Don Partington and Steve Thompson. Don also served on the Assimilation Committee and was vice-president of the Glee Club. Ken Brethauer was president of this organization, and Monty Tucker helped with publicity. Besides these men, there were 17 other Phi Gam members of the Glee Club.

John Hopewell, Don Partington, and Don Rhinesmith were members of the Student Service Society. Joe Inabnett and Ven Proctor were selected for membership in White Friars, and Tom Krook and Chip Day were chosen for Pi Alpha Nu. Charlie Bowie was elected as a member of the "13" Club. Among those active on the W&L athletic scene were Chip Day, Dave Munroe, Dick Elliot, Ven Proctor, Tom Krook, Tony Brennen, Bill Spencer-Strong, Charlie Bowie, Tom Rideout, and Sandy Fenn.

The Fiji intramural program was ably handled by Charlie Bowie. The Phi Gam social calendar was quite full, as Fijis enjoyed their annual Champagne Party and Fiji Island Weekend, not to mention the excellent house parties during Fancy Dress.

Mrs. Virginia Stover Smith, Phi Gam's house mother, contributed much to the Chapter's success in the past year.

The Virginia Beta Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi is the oldest fraternity at Washington and Lee, being founded in 1855, and it is the third oldest of the 61 national chapters in the country. Virginia Beta Chapter increased its membership this fall with 14 new pledges, making Phi Psi one of the largest and strongest fraternity chapters at Washington and Lee.

Phi Psi's are active in all phases of campus life. Among the prominent leaders in Washington and Lee's extra-curricular activities are: Ray Woolridge, president of the Student Service Society; Dan Leonard, Jim Vann, Jim Russ, and George Van Sciver who are members of this organization; Jim Vann, president of the junior class and president-elect of the Washington and Lee Dance Board; and Davis Reed, who is associate editor of The Ring-tum Phi. In the Law School, Brothers Ace Hubbard and Harlan Heglen are president and vice-president respectively, of the freshman law class.

In the field of sports, Phi Psi was equally prominent. Sophomore Jim Russ was a standout as first string halfback on the football squad this season. Drew Danko was co-captain of the varsity wrestling squad; senior Skip Horst was co-captain of the lacrosse team, while sophomores Bart Mitchell and Ray Miller were outstanding members of the squad.

Once again, Virginia Beta chapter enjoyed a great social year, with Tag Strite doing an excellent job as social chairman. The Christmas party, at which the Phi Psi Sweetheart was crowned, the informal parties on dance weekends, and spring parties at Goshen Pass highlighted the social season.

Included in the physical improvements made during the past year was the surfacing of the fraternity's driveway and parking lot.

Mention should certainly be made of Virginia Beta's house mother, Mrs. Carroll D. Evans, who completed her tenth year with the local chapter.

Phi Kappa Sigma was founded at the University of Pennsylvania in 1850. The Alpha Alpha Chapter of Phi Kappa Sigma was established on the Washington and Lee campus in 1894. Since its beginning this chapter has had a consistent record of outstanding leadership in the many phases of campus activity.

Alpha Alpha Chapter is ably represented in the university administration and faculty by such outstanding educators as Dr. L. J. Desha, Professor Emeritus of chemistry, and Dr. Lewis W. Adams, Dean of the Commerce School.

This year, Phi Kappa Sigma, under the guidance of its faculty advisor, Dr. Desha, and house mother, Mrs. Alice Cogbill, is continuing its tradition of leadership. Charlie McCormick served as chairman of the Mock Democratic Convention, and Joe Lyle was chairman of the Law School's National Moot Court Team and secretary of the Student Bar Association.

In sports, Phi Kaps won the Intercollegiate Golf Trophy with captain Charlie McCormick, D. A. Penick, and manager Lew Nelson on the team. Chris Clarke, Sam Channell, and George Chapman played varsity soccer. Jeff Lasher made the Virginia All-State Collegiate Rifle Team. Tab Bunkley, Tom Edwards, and Clarence Renshaw participated in varsity track. The local Alpha Alpha Chapter, guided by manager Larry Keech, took an active part in intramural competition.

In addition, Phi Kaps exhibited leadership in other campus activities with Lew Nelson as managing editor of The Ring-tum Phi, Bob Sykes on the executive council of the University Christian Association and assistant news editor of The Ring-Tum Phi. The house was also represented by brothers in such organizations as Graham-Lee Society, Glee Club, International Relations Club, Southern Collegian, and the honorary societies, "13" Club, Mongolian Minks, PAN, and White Friars.

Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity was founded at the University of Virginia in 1886. Since that time, the fraternity has expanded into a national organization of over 130 active chapters. The Pi Chapter was started on the Washington and Lee campus in 1892.

Leadership in campus activities has long been a tradition with the brothers of Pi Chapter, and this year the tradition was furthered by having Tim Ireland, a senior, and Bill Outman, a sophomore, on the Executive Committee. In addition to this, Tim served on the Assimilation Committee, Student Service Society, and as a dormitory counselor. Al Folcher, a junior, was sports editor of The Ring-Tum Phi, and several of the brothers wrote for the paper.

Pi Chapter was also very well represented in sports this year, both on the varsity level and in intramurals. The winning of the Intramural Championship last year by Pi Kappa Alpha was an indication of the spirit and cooperation that the brothers place behind all house activities. Skip Rohlke, captain of the track team, co-captain of the swimming team, and a member of the soccer team was the first W&L student to have earned a total of 12 varsity letters in the past 15 years. In addition to Skip, the Pi chapter was represented on the varsity soccer team by sophomores Mike Keating, Bill Outman, and Guy Graham, and by senior Skip Isreal. Elliott Maynard held several school and conference swimming records, and freshmen Charlie Stevenson endeavored to follow his example. Sophomores Dan Blain and Bob Lewis held positions on the varsity football team this past season, and sophomores John Tribble and Steve Cook were on the wrestling squad. Freshmen Ted Doremus played on the freshmen basketball team.

Socially speaking, the past year has been successful. In addition to the various house parties and casual gatherings at Goshen, a great number of the brothers and their dates attended the annual PiKA Ball in Richmond. Another of the more memorable social gatherings was the party held at the Steady Farm near Goshen. The construction of the patio in the side yard last year was an advantage in that it enabled Pi Chapter to take its parties outside during the warm spring and early fall months.

PiKA is indebted to its house mother, Mrs. Ruth Browne, for her service and enthusiasm. Mrs. Browne appeared in several Troubadour productions during the past year.

The Rho Chapter of Pi Kappa Phi was established at Washington and Lee in 1920. From its small beginning, it has grown into a large, well assimilated organization of diversified interests and accomplishments.

In athletics, the intercollegiate competition was opened this year by the capturing of the Varsity Cross-Country Trophy for the third consecutive season and for the fourth time in six years. Brother Bill Loeffler, captain of the team last year, was voted the Forest Fletcher Memorial Trophy for the second time. Holt Merchant has been elected to serve as a captain of the cross-country team for the coming season. Lettermen Roger Holden and Bob Park again represented Pi Kap on the varsity rifle team, winning last year the Intercollegiate Rifle Trophy. In winter sports, Cope Hiemenz payed forward on the freshman basketball squad, and Ted Johnson and Perky MacKenney were members of the junior varsity swimming team. Junior Ted Hardin wrestled in intercollegiate competition.

Bill Loeffler, a dormitory counselor this year, was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Loeffler, Jim Bryant, and Jack Hopkins were members of Sigma Delta Chi, national honorary journalism society. Hopkins acted this year as president, and Bryant, former editor of the Friday edition of The Ring Turn Phi and president of the Publications Board, served as vice-president. John Miles was elected secretary-treasurer of Psi Chi and served as Army Bandmaster. The ROTC department recently named him as Distinguished Military Student. Miles is also senior editor of Home Edition, and is assisted by brothers Dick Kelly, Marty Hylbom, and Bob Briede. Dick Hoover leads the University Band, and six Pi Kaps sing in the Glee Club.

Pi Kappa Phi ranks third scholastically among fraternities at W&L, and Jim Hardin was nominated by the faculty for a Fulbright Scholarship. Socially, the year has such activities as a "Grain Party," held during the spring at Goshen; The Rose Ball; Homecomings, and the other parties that go along with football weekends and dance sets.

Miss Helen Ann Gardner is Pi Kap's house mother.

The Virginia Sigma Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded in 1867, just 11 years after the national fraternity was founded at the University of Alabama. In its 92 year history, the local chapter has striven to achieve all-around excellence in the fields of social, athletic, academic, and extra-curricular activities.

During the 1959-60 school year, members of Virginia Sigma held many important posts on campus. Peter Lee served as secretary of the Student Body and president of Omicron Delta Kappa. Serving on the Executive Committee with Lee were Warren Goodwyn and Jon McLin. McLin also served as president of the senior class, and Rosewell Page was elected president of the sophomore class.

W&L's ROTC Regimental Staff was weighted heavily with SAE's, as Hayes Gowen held down the top position of regimental Commander, while Billy Schaefer served as his executive officer, and Hoyle Jones was a battalion commander. SAE thus accounted for three of the top four posts in the regiment.

Boek Knickerbocker served as president of the University Christian Association and as director of the University Religious Conference.

Many SAE's figured prominently in W&L's athletic program. Six members saw a great deal of action on the football field, including starting center Courtney Mauzy. Tim Brown was elected co-captain of the freshman team. In basketball, Bill Buice played his third year for the Generals. Deco Detering captained the tennis team, after having previously won the school tennis championship.

Warren Goodwyn and Jon McLin served on the Steering Committee of the 1960 Mock Democratic National Convention, and McLin and Peter Lee were chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The chapter also enjoyed a very full year socially. Football weekends always found a party at the SAE house, and traditional parties such as the Christmas House Party and the Pajama Party were better than ever. The coming of spring made the many trips to Goshen enjoyable and memorable.

In publications, Foxy Benton was business manager of the 1960 CALYX, while Bill Roberts worked on the editorial staff of The Shenandoah and Rosewell Page served as news editor of the Friday Edition of The Ring-Tum Phi.

The chapter is indebted to its house mother, Mrs. Felde Wagner. The interest and help of faculty advisors, Dr. Jay O. Cook and Dr. James H. Starling and of William C. Washburn and Dean Frank J. Gilliam, has also been appreciated very much.

Sigma Chi, as a national fraternity, was founded in 1855, and the Zeta Chapter was established here at W&L in 1866, and has had a long line of contributions to the campus since that time.

This year, Darracott Vaughan, assisted by Bob Doenges, was in charge of rush week. John Refo was the top pledge with Chris Hutchins serving as pledge trainer.

Athletically, Zeta had Ron Randel, John Godsey and Bucky Buxton on the gridiron; Chuck Springer was co-captain of the swimming team; and Jack Blakeslee, the house's star runner, was back for soccer and track. Les Pinsoff and Pete Lalli saw action on both the soccer and lacrosse fields. Bob Doenges played on the varsity basketball team.

Academically, Henry Harrell, Max Elliot, Mark Sellers, and Tom Branch were named to the Dean's List, and the house average as a whole was better than in recent years.

In campus activities, Tom Branch, Henry Harrell, Hardie Karrh, and Billy Martin sang with the Sazeracs. Gene Melton, Bob Doenges, Ian MacKenzie and Hardie Karrh were initiated into various honorary sophomore societies.

Football and party weekends saw many fine parties and combos at Sigma Chi, with Fancy Dress and Springs being the outstanding weekends on the social agenda.

High points of the year off-campus were the Thanksgiving weekend in New York, and the annual Sigma Chi Sweetheart Party in Roanoke.

Sigma Chi's successes would not be complete without the co-operation and help of Mrs. Judith Devol, the house mother, and Dr. Kenneth P. Stevens, the faculty advisor.

Sigma Nu, founded at Virginia Military Institute in 1869, is one of the largest national collegiate fraternities in the U.S., having chapters in all but three of the 50 states. The Lambda chapter has been on the W&L campus since 1882.

Sigma Nu is outstanding in all phases of campus life. Among its outstanding students on campus are Dave Weaver, president of the Fancy Dress Dance Set and president of the Sazeracs; Al Broadus, vice-president of the junior class; and Tom Touchton, secretary-treasurer of the Fraternity House Manager's Association. Jim McBride, Dave Peters, George Harvey, Carl Connell, Wes Ostergren, Bill Berrington and Bud Lee participated in the Glee Club. Bud and Dave Weaver also sang with the Sazeracs. Frank Carlile and Wes Ostergren served on The Shenandoah staff, and freshman John Dunnell participated in the fall production of the Troubadours. Pete Straub, a junior in ROTC and a member of

In athletics, Sigma Nu was well represented. Bill Willes and Dave Tharp lettered in varsity football as did Wes Ostergren in varsity wrestling. Wally Thulin upheld Sigma Nu's participation on the rifle team, while John Roper played soccer. Sigma Nu was also competitive in intramurals, especially in tennis, basketball, and handball.

Socially, Sigma Nu stood out. The December house party given in honor of Dave Weaver during Fancy Dress and the annual White Rose Ball in the spring were quite successful.

Sigma Nu recognizes cooperation and unity as being the basic factors for its wide-spread participation in campus activities. It is because of the help of their house mother, Mrs. C. A. Spence, who has been with them 14 years, that much of this success was possible.

The Virginia Epsilon chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon was established on the Washington and Lee campus on March 30, 1906, the 19th chapter of the national fraternity. It was forced to disestablish itself at the beginning of World War II and was reactivated on December 3, 1958.

The Sig Eps have made a great deal of progress in the short time since reactivation. The Virginia Epsilon Housing Board purchased the J. M. Davidson residence in September, 1959, for the chapter's home. The Virginia Epsilon Alumni on the Housing Board are Judge W. E. Cundiff, its president; and former governor and present Virginia Congressman, W. M. Tuck.

Sig Eps are members of Washington and Lee athletic teams in addition to competing in all intramural sports. Charles Rich and Gaylord Hall were on the varsity swimming squad, receiving JV letters; Bill Durrett lettered in rifle; and Rich was on the golf team. The top runner on this year's cross-country team was Mike Shank, who broke the school's cross-country record. George Peters, who won the intramural wrestling championship for his weight class, and Woody Wise were on the wrestling squad. John Culley played JV basketball, while Clint Anderson and Pete Bennett managed track.

Many Sig Eps hold offices and are active in organizations on campus. Dave Dunlap was the president of Sigma and the Young Republicans. In the law school, Bill Crowell headed a committee of the Student Bar Association, Bayles Mack was vice-president of the Student Bar Association, and Paul Robertson served on The Lane Review staff. In the undergraduate school, Palmer Pardington, treasurer of the Concert Guild, was a member of both the Seminar Committee of the English Department and on the Assimilation Committee. In addition, several Sig Eps were members of the University Glee Club, University Band, Washington Literary Society, and the University Christian Association.

Sig Ep's outstanding social function was the Sweetheart Ball held in the spring. Combos at the House on dance weekends and other occasions throughout the year contributed a great deal to a successful social season.

Mrs. H. W. McConnell is Sig Ep house mother, and Lt. Richard J. Rappaport is the faculty advisor.

The Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Zeta Beta Tau became a recognized fraternity at Washington and Lee in 1920. Since that time, it has established a prominent position for itself in all phases of university life.

This year the house had members participating in many extra-curricular activities. Law School Senior Bill Abelloff served as vice-president of the University and on the staff of The Law Review. At the same time, three seniors, Rich Abernson, Steve Miller, and Merv Silverman, were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Rich Abernson was chairman of the Student Committee, IFC Rush Chairman, vice-president of the Student Service Society, secretary of the Commerce Fraternity, a Freshman Camp counselor, and a member of Scabbard and Blade. Steve Miller held the offices of chairman of the University Party, business manager of The Ring-Tum Phi, vice-president of the Publications Board, president of the House Managers' Association, and vice-president of Openings Dances. Merv Silverman was president of the W&L Dance Board, treasurer of the Assimilation Committee, and a member of the Student Service Society and of Alpha Delta, the pre-medical fraternity. Another senior, Frank Glaser, was vice-president of the Commerce school as well as captain of the varsity tennis team.

In the junior class, Brian Vitsky, an Honor Roll student and recipient of the Phi Beta Kappa Sophomore Award, served as chair-

Outstanding in campus dramatics was Steve Danzansky, who was writer and director of this year's SWMSFC musical comedy production. Steve also appeared in several Troubadour productions.

ZBT was also well represented in both university and intramural athletics. In the fall season, Steve Paley and Jim Frzund were starters on the varsity soccer team. In winter athletics, Art Blank continued to perform as top diver on the swimming team and was elected team captain. Ed Berman was a member of the varsity basketball team, and the freshman were also well represented in basketball and wrestling. During the spring, Moose Applefeld was again a starter on the varsity lacrosse team, and Frank Glaser was an outstanding performer on the tennis team. In addition, Jerry Darrel was a left fielder for the varsity baseball team.

Alpha Epsilon Chapter was not lacking with an outstanding social program. It had top combos on all the big school weekends and gave many other parties during the year. Especially notable were the Pledge Initiation Weekend and Spring Dances Weekend.

This year the House had a new house mother, Mrs. Forest Fletcher, who served faithfully in this capacity.

Beta Theta Pi Championship Basketball Team.

Phi Delta Theta Championship Tennis Team.

The intramural sports, under the direction of Pete Merrill, are operated on a campus-wide basis, consisting of teams from the fraternities, NFU, and faculty. The fraternity compiling the most participation and placing points wins the coveted Intramural Trophy. Competitive spirit runs high in these colorful intramural sports with several teams vying with each other for the slim margin that will win the trophy. Pi Kappa Alpha came out on top in 1959 with 1199 points, followed closely by the SAE's with 1170.

The PiKA's started off the 1959-60 intramural season successfully again by playing in the finals against the Betas for the all-important football championship. After an overtime the score was still deadlocked at 7-7. The game then went into "penetrations" whereby the team penetrating farthest into the opponent's territory in four plays would win the game. The PiKA's got 12 yards from the Betas, but on their fourth down a thirty-five yard Larson to Eppley pass won the trophy for the Betas.

Delta Tau Delta Championship Swimming Team.

The Betas turned around and relinquished their two year winning streak in track and field by bowing out to the SAE's. The mile relay was the deciding event, with the SAE team just edging out the Phi Delt and Beta runners to steal the trophy. The Phi Delts retaliated by winning the golf trophy. Kappa Sigma's Jimi Bailey won the freshmen turkey trot while Phi Psi edged into first place by winning handball. The Betas moved into second place with their capture of the basketball crown.

The spring of 1959 proved a close season of competition with almost every fraternity taking one crown. The ZBT's produced a brilliant basketball team and won the trophy without a loss. Volleyball went to the Phi Gams, while the Delts took the bowling title. The DU's John Cherrybone proved to be a bonecrushing wrestler and almost single-handedly won the title for them. The powerful PiKA's won softball and also gathered in the most points in the Sigma Delta Psi tests. Phi Kappa Sigma took table tennis. The spring of '60 promised even more excitement than that of '59, as the Phi Psi, Betas, and SAE's duelled for first place.

Washington and Lee began the 1959 football year with high hopes for the coming season. The strong freshmen from the year before were now sophomores with a year of experience. Jack Groner and Steve Suttle gave the team two fine quarterbacks to go with the running of Bill Young and Bobby Funkhouser. Jim Hickey proved to be a pleasant surprise, using his speed from the halfback position to break away for many long gains. On the flanks Windy Weed and Ned Hobbs supplied the squad with two fine ends.

For the third year under the regime of Lee McLaughlin, Washington and Lee used the "Go-T." Also, the spread formation proved most successful in taking advantage of Jack Groner's passing and Steve Suttle's running ability. Split ends and flanked backs varied the offense and gave the team a wide open attack.

Funkhouser shows why he was the team's leading scorer.

The Generals were most fortunate to have few injuries to key players, and captains Bill Young and Jack Groner proved to be excellent leaders. On offense W&L was a constant threat from any part of the field on Groner's arm and from the fleet set of backs. On defense Terry Fohs led the team in tackles for the second straight year, with Tiny White and Barton Dick furnishing the leadership among interior linemen. In perspective, the Generals would have had a much better record if they had not run upon unusual weather in a few games.

The Generals opened their 1959 season on Wilson Field by completely submerging Centre College 42-8. Everything seemed to go just right for the Blue and White as McLaughlin emptied his bench. Bob Funkhouser scored three times and Steve Suttle picked up many valuable yards. The gridiron gods seemed to smile on Wilson Field as the Generals ran up their highest score since the days of subsidized football. The following weekend the Generals again rolled over their opponents, this time Dickinson being the victim 45-14. The crowds once more were thrilled by the explosive offense of the W&L charges. Jack Groner threw three touchdown passes, one for 75 yards to Bill Offutt. Dickinson scored the first time it got the ball, but the Blue and White marched 80 yards to tie up the game. From then on, it was all W&L. In the fourth quarter, in an effort to hold down the score of the game, the Generals quick-kicked two times and both landed inside of the Dickinson one-yard line.

The Generals next traveled to Lancaster, Pennsylvania, to play Franklin and Marshall at their Homecomings. From the beginning, it was apparent that the Generals lacked the spirit and drive that had marked their first two victories. F&M scored the first time they had the ball, and the Blue and White spent the rest of the game chasing them. Jack Groner was the only really outstanding player on this cold Saturday for the Generals, as he passed for 200 yards. But W&L just didn't have enough support for him, and they suffered their first defeat of the season.

A brilliant second half comeback led by the passing of senior Jack Groner gained Washington and Lee a 33-33 tie with Randolph-Macon College at Wilson Field. Playing a dismal and disappointing first half, and trailing 24-6, the Generals scored 19 straight points in eleven minutes of the third quarter to take the lead for the only time in the game. However the Yellow Jackets bounced right back: in front, and with six minutes left in the game they scored again on a 23 yard field goal. Things were looking dim with the Generals behind 33-25, but with only 54 seconds to play, Groner handed off to Jim Hickey who scored from the one to put the Generals within two points. Then on the most crucial play of the game, Groner passed to halfback John White for the necessary points to tie the game.

In Petersburg, the Generals suffered their second loss of the season 12-0 at the hands of the Hampden-Sydney Tigers. The game was marred by rain and that could well have been the reason for the Generals' loss. Unable to pass effectively because of the rain, the General offense was not able to open up. Groner was only able to complete six of twelve passes. Blocked kicks and fumbles cost the Generals both touchdowns. The Generals tried a quick-kick early in the first period, but it was blocked and turned into a score by the Tigers. Late in the third quarter, a General bobble set up the other score. Terry Fohs and Courtney Mauzy sparked the defensive unit.

The Generals were next defeated by an unbeaten Carnegie Tech team on Homecomings at Wilson Field, 20-16. It was a disappointing loss for the Generals who outgained the Tartains in every respect. However, seven fumbles and two blocked kicks were all the Techmen needed for victory. A beautiful 59 yard pass play from Groner to halfback Dick Mosby was the only bright spot for the Generals.

In a game marred by rain, sleet, and clouds, the Sewanee Tigers recovered a Washington and Lee fumble in the Generals' end zone with two minutes remaining to defeat W&L, 15-14. After Sewanee scored first on an intercepted pass, Groner flipped a 30 yard pass to Mosby, and he raced the remaining 40 yards for the score. Four minutes later, W&L had their second score of the afternoon as Bob Funkhouser plunged over. Late in the fourth quarter, Steve Suttle fumbled in the end zone and victory was the 'Tigers'.

In their last game of the season, the Generals traveled to St. Louis to play the Washington University Bears. After trailing by a wide margin late in the game, W&L finally subdued the underdog Bears, 35-26. The running of Jim Hickey and Bill Young spelled the difference for the Generals. Tiny White, Terry Fohs, Dave Monroe, and Jerry Hyatt sparked the defensive unit in the second half halt of the Bears. Coach McLaughlin emptied his bench out, and the season ended on a happy note. The promising freshmen in '58 had finally matured into the powerful sophomores who made the '59 season a success.

Starting off the season with a 5-2 victory over Randolph-Macon, the soccer team went on to compile a 5-3-1 record. The W&L booters were coached by Joe Lyles, in his first year at that post. Other victories against tough Duke and Roanoke teams, a tie game with U. of Va., and the first intercollegiate soccer tournament held in Virginia were other highlights of the season.

The three regular season losses were to a good North Carolina team, Lynchburg, and Georgetown. The Lynchburg team, which W&L met again in the tournament, was undefeated for this season. The Georgetown loss came in the last game of the season, just after W&L had finished its grueling tournament schedule. Injuries also figured prominent in this loss. The tie game, with the 0-0 score, was carried into double overtime without either team being able to score a goal.

For the first time in the history of Virginia soccer, and perhaps for the South, an intercollegiate soccer tournament was held in Lexington. The event was directed by Coach Lyles of W&L and consisted of a double elimination affair spread over two days. Out of the five teams participating, W&L finished second to Lynchburg's powerful team. The other teams included V.P.I., V.M.I., and Roanoke College. The General booters defeated all these teams at least once before losing to Lynchburg twice on the last day. In the last game, W&L led 3 to 1 with nine minutes remaining before tiring and finally falling by a +3 score. Captain and left wing Bob Lathrop, right forward Skip Rohnke, center halfback Frank Smith, and goalie Charles Stow made the all-tourney team.

In addition to seniors Lathrop and Rohnke, Pit Burton and Charlie Stow, a law student finished their college careers. Steve Paley was one of the juniors on the team.

Begg and Burton move in.

Smith, a sophomore, was joined by Dave Knight, Jim Starkey, Chris Clarke, Mike Keating, Bill Outman, Al Corwin, Jim Freund and Dunlop Ecker, the other sophomores on the team. Freshman Bob Pagano gained a starting position on the squad. Other freshmen were Chuck Begg and Tom Edwards. Toon Telegen, an exchange student from Holland, helped the team after adjusting to the faster American style of play. The play of Knight, Smith and Stow was outstanding the whole season.

Knight and Smith were elected to captain the team for next year, with the tournament, started by Coach Lyles and W&L becoming bigger and better.

Cross-Country

Washington and Lee's cross country team, made up mostly of freshmen and a few experienced upperclassmen, had their finest season since 1944. The squad, coached by Dick Miller, compiled a 5-4 record, and finished 6th in the state meet.

The harriers opened the season with a 31-24 loss to Hampden-Sidney. In the 3.1 mile run, Generals Mike Shank and Rick Kurz finished 4th and 5th.

Marshall College fell to W&L in the longest race of the year, 4.3 miles. Jim King, a sophomore, finished second with a fast 26:03 time. Stoncy Duffey finished third, and Bill Loeffler and Al Curran finished 4th and 5th respectively.

Winning their second straight race, the Blues defeated Pfeiffer College 19-39. Duffey finished first over the 3.2 mile course, and King finished 3rd.

The General's continued the winning string by defeating Lynchburg College in Lexington, 22-37. Duffey, running first again, was followed by King, who finished second, and Kirk Merchant and Shank, who finished 5th and 6th.

The fourth straight win for the General harriers came over the University of Richmond, 15-50. Duffey was first once again, running his fastest race of the year.

Randolph-Macon was to see the team win its 5th, and last contest of the season, 26-31. With Duffey sick, the Generals found Shank and King to replace him, and they edged R-M.C. in the closest meet of the season.

Virginia ended the team's winning streak by defeating the Generals 42-15. Duffey, recovering from the flu could do not better than 6th place, but still led all the W&L runners.

Catawba took an easy win, 37-19 from the Blues, two days later. Duffey held the team up once again, by finishing second, while Shank finished 5th.

High Point College held the Generals back so that the best they could do was to gain a sixth place. This was done by Mike Shank. The team then went on to the state meet and finished 6th with 145 points.

With Loeffler graduating, the Generals will lose a fine runner, but with the rest of the squad returning, the harriers, led by Duffey, will be very strong contenders to better this year's team record.

Swimming

With an 8-0 dual meet record, the swimming team finished its first undefeated season since 1938. This record was a fitting climax for Coach Cy Twombly, who is relinquishing his duties as head swimming coach after this year.

Three outstanding seniors, co-captains Art Blank, Karl Rohnke, and Chuck Springer, ended their college careers this season. Blank was especially outstanding in his diving event, in which he went two years without losing a dual meet. Also, he participated twice in the Eastern and National Swimming Championships, finishing tenth last year. Rohnke, who competed this season in the butterfly and medley relay events, was a star freestyler, breaking W&L's seventeen-year-old 100 yard freestyle record. Springer starred in the butterfly and individual medley events.

Another star this year was sophomore Elliott Maynard. Swimming in the 200 yard breaststroke, Maynard broke the Generals' previous record of 2:25 with a 2:23 clocking against American U. Maynard has been entered in the Eastern Swimming Championships at Harvard and in the N.C.A.A. meet in Dallas.

Perhaps the most exciting meet of the season was against American University. Although the score was 55-40, the final outcome wasn't decided until the last event, the 400 yard freestyle relay. The medley relay team of Pete Weimer, Maynard, Rohnke, and Maury Purnell broke a four-year record of 3:58.1 with a 3:55.3 time. Another decisive victory for the rankers was gained over U. of Va. by a 56-39 score.

The freestyle events were handled by Purnell and Jim Parker at the 50 and 100 yard distances, and by sophomore Dave Benn in greater distances. Pete Weimer and Robert Dunlap swam the backstroke. Ed Meyers joined Art Blank in the diving events. The freestyle relay team was composed of Purnell, Rohnke, and freshmen Charles Hart and Charlie Gummy. Herb Jahnke, Steve Stull, and Ted Johnson were the other first year men on the team. These men all combined to bring W&L its first undefeated season in any sport for many years.

Wrestling

The 1959-1960 W&L wrestling team finished one of the best wrestling seasons in recent years, compiling a 7-2 record. Coach Dick Miller was highly satisfied with the team's performance this season, and is looking toward next season with much hope, since all of the lettermen will be returning.

Washington and Lee started the season with a victory over North Carolina scoring 22 points to North Carolina's 11. Co-Captain Drew Danko pinned his man, as did freshman Dave Montgomery and sophomore Danny Dyer. Dick Albert, also a freshman, turned in a fine winning performance. W&L was set back in its next match by a subsidized Franklin and Marshall team. The score was 5-21, with Danny Dyer turning in the only W&L win.

Out to avenge the defeat by F&M, the team met a strong Gaulaudet squad and changed the story. W&L was able to crush Gallaudet by a score of 23-3. This was the same team that defeated W&L in the 1958-1959 season. Winners in this match included co-captain Tony Brennan, Kent Frazier, and Steve Cook. Dyer, Montgomery, and Sandy Mersereau also posted victories. Kent Frazier was able to pin his man in 30 seconds. The team next met, and defeated New York University, 30-10. Montgomery, Albert, Brennan, Mersereau, and Graham Fulton all won their matches by pins.

Captains Brennan and Danko confer with Coach Miller about the coming match.

The team next traveled to Duke University where the Generals were able to win a tough match with the Blue Devils. Sandy Mersereau turned in his finest performance of the season as he decisioned the Duke captain. Montgomery, Dyer, Frazier, and Danko all won their matches, to bring about the important W&L victory.

The team then met subsidized West Virginia, and suffered its second but last defeat of the season. Sandy Mersereau was the only W&L winner against the Mountaineers. The team was able to come back from this defeat and go ahead to beat Wake Forest 38-0. Dyer, Mersereau, Brennan, Danko, Fulton, and Bob Pagano all pinned their men. In addition, Ted Hardin won on point score, and Dave Montgomery won by a forfeit.

The Generals then turned to Hampden-Sidney and were able to crush their opponents by a 22-6 score. This was done with the aid of Hardin, Montgomery, Dyer, Mersereau, Danko, and Fulton. In the final match of the winning season, W&L beat the University of Virginia at Charlottesville 16-13. Montgomery, Mersereau, Danko, and Dyer all won their matches, and in an exciting finish, heavyweight Graham Fulton was able to hold his man to a draw to keep W&L's 3 point victory.

Fulton, who had never wrestled before, was chosen the most improved wrestler on the squad. Danny Dyer, Drew Danko, and Sandy Mersereau were able to gain 7-1 records, while Dave Montgomery was able to provide a 7-2 season. Dyer's 5 pins were the high for the team. The Mathis War Memorial Trophy for the most outstanding wrestler was given to Sandy Mersereau, and Mersereau and Danny Dyer were elected co-captains for the 1960-61 season.

Washington and Lee's basketball team, coached by Bob McHenry in his second year, ended the 1959-60 season with a record of eight wins and ten losses. The Generals, recovering from a one win and 18 loss record the previous year, were hampered by losses on the road. At season's end the Generals were winless away from the Doremus Gymnasium while winning all but one encounter on the home court.

Malcolm Lassman and Frank Surface, the Blue and White's star guards, captained the cagers and led in the scoring department. Lassman finished the season on the All-State second team and compiled an average of 14 points a game.

The Generals opened the season with their only home court loss of the year, to the Bridgewater Eagles, the future champions of the Mason-Dixon Conference. The Blues, led by Lassman with 18 points, moved to within one point of the Eagles, only to lose in the final 30 seconds 62-59. Freshman Rodger Fauber was second in scoring to Lassman with 12 points.

Moving to Tennessee for the first game of a weekend double-header against Chattanooga University and Sewanee, the Generals found the tall Smokies from Chattanooga dangerous from long range and apparently too much to handle. Daughtrey with 14 points and Fauber with 11 points led the losing cause as Chattanooga won 71-60.

Sewanee placed four men in double figures to crush the cold cagers from W&L, 78-57. Freshman Fauber led the Generals with 14 points followed by co-captain Surface with 12.

In a return match with Bridgewater, the jinx away from Lexington held despite Daughtrey's 18 points and 15 rebounds. The Eagles won easily 63-52. Back in Lexington, Washington and Lee opened by crushing Emory and Henry 76-55. Lassman finally found the range and collected 23 points. Gaut added 21 points, pulled down 15 rebounds, and played a fine defensive game. Daughtrey added 14 points to remain in double figures for the third straight game.

The tall Richmond Spiders were spotted a 15 point lead in the first half and it was too much to overcome, as the Generals found the range in the final half. Lassman hit for 26 points, 20 of them in the last half, but the Spiders won 71-55. Catholic University found the range early and despite Lassman's, Surface's, and Daughtrey's 13 points each, won 72-62.

Returning home the Generals found their home court quite warm as they downed Randolph-Macon 70-61. The Generals placed all five starters in double figures, led by Surface with 18 and Lassman and Gaut with 13 each. Two days later the Generals edged Catholic University 18-76 with Surface and Lassman leading the Blues with 22 and 17 points respectively. Hampden-Sydney found the Gen-

On the road once more after a two week exam break, the Generals lost in the final seconds to Hampden-Sydney 72-70. Lassman with 21 and Daughtery with 16 points led the Blues. Fauber, who collapsed after the final whistle, was to be out for the rest of the season except for the last game.

The Generals came back to defeat Washington College 61-56. Daughtrey with 22 points led all scorers. Surface with 13 points and Lassman followed closely. Monier, the leading rebounder, picked off 15 rebounds. Lynchburg College found the Blues stiff opposition as the Generals scored 83 points, their high for the season, as compared to the loser's 61.

Randolph-Macon, revenging an earlier season defeat, beat W&L in a hotly contested game, 86-77.

In Lexington for their final home game, the Blues defeated Roanoke College 75-61. Surface and Daughtrey totaled 18 and 14 points respectively. Big Mike Monier pulled down 16 rebounds in his finest game of the season and scored 11 points.

Emory and Henry defeated the cold Generals 68-66 after leading by 20 points at the half. The Generals tied the game with 10 seconds to go, but E & H scored quickly and the Blues missed four shots before the buzzer.

The outlook for future seasons for Bob McHenry, head coach, is quite promising. To outstanding freshmen Rodger Fauber, Ken Kowalski, and Brett Thackston, he will be able to add the height of Mike Monier, Bill Buice, Bill Ide, Steve Rutledge, and Pearce Hardwick. Graduating seniors Gaut, Daughtrey, Lassman and Surface formed a powerful nucleus which will be difficult to replace.

Lea closes in on an ambitious attackman.

The Washington and Lee lacrosse team of 1959, with its sight set upon a summer trip to Australia, began practice early in March. Lacking the nucleus of the 1958 team which had been ranked seventh nationally, Coach Bob McHenry was faced with but five returning lettermen. These included defensemen, Captain Corky Briscoe and Chuck Lea, and the second midfield of Jay Stull, Skip Horst, and Harry Alley. The first midfield was made of those three, the second of Tony Brennan, Hunter Tracht, and Dave Knight. At attack were Hank Bahlmann, Hilly Thompson, Jerry Lindquist, and Ray Miller. The strong defense was led by Briscoe, Lea, and Royce Hough. At goalie the Generals had two able tenders, Moose Applefeld and John Dinkel.

After getting off to an inauspicious start by dropping an unofficial game to Williams 12-4, the Generals moved against powerful Maryland. As against Williams, penalties and experimentation were key factors in the General's loss.

With the beginning of spring vacation the Generals took their first road trip of the year, topping Loyola and Hofstra during the week vacation. Washington, a class A team, lost an early lead to the Generals, who copped the 6-5 contest on a muddy field. Jay Stull scored the winning goal on a rebound shot with but eight seconds remaining. His three goals in the second half carried W&L to the upset win. Stull's mate in the first midfield, Skip Horst, starred in the overwhelming win over Loyola as he garnered four goals and three assists. Stull added four goals while attackman Bahlmann got three. The defense played their best game of the year holding Loyola scoreless until 9:17 of the second period.

Back in Lexington the Generals lost to Baltimore University 12-7. Two goals by Stull paced the losing Blues while the defense work of Hough, Briscoe, and Lea was outstanding against the faster Baltimore team.

Applefeld gets ready for another save.

W&L defense wasn't quite good enough this time.

Playing in Baltimore, against the national champions, John Hopkins, the lacrosse men could score only one goal, while the powerful Hopkins attack and midfield added 22 goals in their scoring drive. Hampered by injuries, the only score the Blues could make was by Jay Stull.

Taking to the road once more, the Generals found Duke more in its class. With the team at full strength the Blues overwhelmed Duke 12-2. Skip Horst paced the Generals with four goals and three assists. Jay Stull and Hunter Tracht each tallied two goals.

The Mount Washington Lacrosse Club, made up of former All-Americans, downed the Generals 26-6 in their next game. Stull and Horst led the Blues with two goals apiece.

The Washington and Lee stickmen, down 6-3 going into the final quarter, punched five goals into the net in the last 15 minutes, to down Washington College 8-6 in Chestertown, Maryland. Goalie John Dinkel had the finest day of the year for a General defenseman, making 22 saves.

After closing out the season with a disappointing loss to the Wahoes of Virginia, the Washington and Lee and Virginia Lacrosse teams accepted an invitation from the Australian Lacrosse Council to visit Australia and play various university and club teams in Melbourne, Adelaide, Perth, and Sydney.

Thompson closes in.
Better luck next time!

Mitchell starts to lower the boom.

After stopping in Hawaii for practice and relaxation, the teams continued on to the Fiji Islands, then to Sydney. After stopping here for a banquet, then flying to Melbourne, the team arrived in Perth for the first game. Before 4,000 fans they defeated the West Australia Club 10-8. A few days later before 4,500 fans they won again 8-6, and again the next day 12-8.

In Adelaide the team lost its first game 13-5, the second game 12-6. Two days later the Generals and Wahoes played their first game to defeat the South Australian's 10-9.

In Melbourne the combined clubs defeated the Victorian Colts 14-5, then 15-3. Two days later they defeated the combined Australian Universities 10-4 with Stull, Applefeld, and Alley leading the team. Before 10,000 fans in the Melbourne Cricter Grounds, the All-Australians defeated the All-Americans 8-6 to end the tour.

Rifle Team

In the words of Sergeant John Matthews, the varsity rifle coach, "This year's team is the best we've seen in quite some time at Washington and Lee." At mid-season, the squad had compiled a 5-4 record, which does not show the near misses, nor the rigid competition.

The Blues got off to a good start with wins over Richmond and George Washington, but they then bogged down at William and Mary. Next, they lost two matches to VMI and West Virginia, who are perhaps the best competition that the Southern Conference has to offer.

At the University of Virginia, it was too close for description. This particular match ended in a tie at 1375-all. In order to break the tie, the two teams decided to recognize as the winner the team with the highest standing-position score. The Wahoos edged ahead with 425 points to W&L's 421. After this very unlucky episode, W&L quickly bounced back with wins over Georgetown, Wake Forest, and William and Mary.

Behind the consistent shooting of Captain Ashby Morton, Beverly DuBose, Dave Auld, and Jeff Lasher, the Generals did a very commendable job this season against their well-seasoned opposition. Also, with the promise shown by freshmen Don Wilsey, James Head, and Art Portnoy, the General outlook is very bright for the future.

Washington and Lee's baseball team started the 1959 season with high hopes because of the presence of veterans Roy Carpenter, Bill McCallum, Charlie Broll, and Tom Moore. Also, promising freshmen, Ned Hobbs, Park Gilmore, and Jim Russ, added hitting strength to the club. But these factors never materialized, as the team batted a paltry .179. Also, the pitching failed to hold its own, as they compiled an earned run average of 5.24 runs per game. In the first game of the year at Paris Island, South Carolina, the Generals defeated the Marines 4-3 in twelve innings. But in the second game, freshman Phil Sharp was defeated 3-0, as the Generals were blanked without a hit. In the third game against the Marines, another freshman, John Amos, was knocked out of the box, as the Generals were thoroughly licked, 12-3. The following day W & L traveled to Charleston, South Carolina, where they came out on the short end of both games against The Citadel, 4-0 and 12-3. Roy Carpenter again pitched his usually fine game, but lack of support spelled defeat for him. In the second game, Ned Hobbs and Jim Russ both hit home runs, but Phil Sharp was blasted from the mound, and the Bulldogs turned the game into a romp.

Back in Virginia after the southern tour, the Generals next faced the University of Richmond, but Carpenter was unable to stop the Spiders, and W&L ended up on the short end of an 8-1 decision. In Williamsburg, William and Mary defeated the Generals 11-5. Twice, with the bases loaded, W&L outfielders made errors on fly balls, and this in itself was enough to cause defeat for the Blues. Against George Washington, Carpenter pitched another fine game, giving up only nine hits to the powerful Colonials, but losing 5-0. Four errors by third sacker Charlie Broll opened the gates for G.W.'s unearned runs. Next, W&L took on William and Mary, losing again to the Indians, 6-5. Carpenter once more chunked an excellent game, but five errors by the Generals cost them the contest. Carpenter and Hobbs gathered two hits apiece, but Tom Moore failed to hit with men on base. Against VPI, the Generals were again defeated, 6-0. The left handed batters for the Tech men were too much for Carpenter to control. But when W&L faced the Davidson Wildcats, the Generals gathered their first collegiate victory of the season. Lamar Herrin came off the bench to slam out three triples and power the team to a 4-0 victory. Broll and Jack Lemon also got two hits, one of Broll's being a triple. In a two-day stand against West Virginia in Morgantown, the Generals were defeated 9-6 and 4-0. In the first game, the Mountaineers proved too much for Sharp, but in the second contest, lack of support for Carpenter spelled defeat for the Generals again. In the last two games of the season, W&L was beaten by the University of Virginia 5-0 and by George Washington, 13-3.

Golf

The golf team, led by Captain Ned Baber, completed one of its best seasons in years. Coached by Cy Twombly, the linksmen compiled a 10-2 regular season, match play record, which included a victory streak of ten in a row. In addition, they topped off the successful season by winning the state intercollegiate golf title.

The team was sparked throughout the year by Baber, who had a season average of close to 70 strokes a match, including three scores in the 60's. The other members of the team included former captain Charlie McCormick, seniors Gene Girard and Dea Penick, juniors Ollie Cook and Joe Ulrich, and freshmen Jack Vardaman and Grant-ham Couch. Girard and Cook lost only two matches apiece during the twelve scheduled matches.

In the regular season play, the team was undefeated up to its last two matches when it lost to Richmond and the U. of Virginia at the winners' home courses. High points of the season occurred against VPI and George Washington. Against VPI, Charlie McCormick sunk a decisive putt on the 18th green to give the Generals a victory over the Techmen for the first time in four years. Playing in Washington, the Generals trounced G. W. 7-2. G. W. went on to win the Southern Conference championship.

The Generals more than atoned for their two regular season defeats when they won the state golf championship over a field, which included Richmond and Virginia, at Hot Springs. Baber and freshman Grant-ham Couch, who joined the team late in the season, led the way to the title. Baber was elected "most outstanding golfer" for the second year in a row, and Ollie Cook was chosen captain of next year's team.

Tennis

After defeating Rutgers University in its opening match, the tennis team went on to compile a 9-3 record for the year. Coached by Bill Washburn, in his first season at the post, and led by Captain Tom Gowenlock, the team included six shutouts in its record. In addition, they defeated the University of Virginia in the last match of the year for the high point of the season.

Junior Billy McWilliams, playing most of his singles matches in the team's number one position, had an 8-3 record. Occasionally he changed places with second man Mauricio Glauser, one of two seniors on the team, who won 8 out of his 12 singles matches. Captain Tom Gowenlock, the other senior on the playing squad, had an excellent season with a 9-3 record. Juniors Deco Detering, Frank Glaser, and Gene O'Dell, sophomore Charles Bowie, and freshman Clark Valentiner rounded out the squad. Detering and Glaser were elected co-captains for the next season.

The three W&L losses were to strong teams from Davidson, NYU, and George Washington. The netters demonstrated their strength in victories over Southern Conference contenders, VPI and William and Mary, and over Hampden-Sydney. In the last match of the season, the Generals scored a narrow 5-4 win over arch-rival Virginia. The contest wasn't decided until the final doubles match, in which Clark Valentiner and Frank Glaser rallied from a first set shutout to win their match and the team match. Since this was the first time since 1924 that W&L had defeated Virginia, the victory was a tremendous climax to a successful season.

Nelson and Stanley sweep the hundred.

Track

The Generals' Thinclads finished their 1959 season with a 6-2 record. The team has steadily improved over the last three years, and since most of the team members are sophomores and juniors, the trackmen look forward to coming years of success.

Captain Skip Rhonke was a consistent winner in the javelin throw, hurling for an amazing 200' 10" in the Pennsylvania relays to break his own W&L record. Another reliable standout was Jim Hickey, who turned in a 9.9 hundred against Richmond. W&L's mile relay team, consisting of Hickey, Fred Nelson, Nathan Simpson, and Jack Blakeslee, was another continuously winning combination, which dashed for a 3:27.4 mile against Richmond. Veteran sprinter Dwight Chamberlain suffered from a pulled muscle most of the season but was a reliable second place runner behind Hickey. Meyers, Callaway, and Parker all vaulted 11', and Parker was the winner of the "Most Improved Trackman" trophy. Cherrybone paced the broadjumpers with 21'.

The Generals finished their season with victories over Highpoint, Elon, Randolph-Macon, Richmond, Lynchburg, and Guilford. The most exciting meet of the season came when the Generals bowed to powerful Hampden Sydney 66-65. The Generals had been predicted to win by a reversal of that score. Coach Norm Lord expressed confidence that his improving sophomores and juniors could better their record in 1960 and avenge this scanty loss.

Epilogue

Here In the Shenandoah Valley, we have an ideal setting for a great university. Our surroundings are guarded by the memories of those two matchless heroes whom the world delights to honor and whom the Southland holds in sacred reverence. As is always the case when we are privileged to participate in a splendid heritage, we incur an obligation both to ourselves and to the Institution from which we go forth. In meeting the various fortunes that life will provide, it will often be a temptation to allow our high ideals to become compromised. But may we go out, firm in the faith of our heritage, and have as our only motto that of the men whose names we honor ...to be a gentleman.

Freedom Isn't "Free"

Our graduates have an opportunity to enjoy a life of freedom, plenty and individual choice—privileges earned by our forefathers.

However, we have a responsibility to perpetuate these privileges. They are not given us "for free". We must earn them ourselves. Individual devotion to the American Way is as important today as it was in 1776.

Today's graduates must shoulder this responsibility, or there will be no freedoms to bequeath tomorrow's students.

As Goethe, the poet, said, "What you have inherited from your fathers, earn over again for yourselves or it will not be yours."

A Memorable Year

• Congratulations to the Student Body and Faculty of Washington and Lee University upon the completion of another outstanding year of accomplishments.

• The Staff of your annual has worked exceedingly hard to give you a superb book that portrays the highlights of memorable activities. To preserve this excellent literary and photographic record, the best grades of material have been combined with skilled workmanship to provide the finest quality yearbook.

• We are very proud that the 1960 Staff selected us to design, print and bind the CALYX. We have earnestly endeavored to fulfill the confidence placed in us.
